

‘My Story’

From Camden soils to ‘Obruni Naa’
and beyond

Brendan Brown

School & University → ACIAR → AYAD → PhD → ?

School & University → ACIAR → AYAD → PhD → ?

School & University → ACIAR → AYAD → PhD → ?

School & University → ACIAR → AYAD → PhD → ?

Reflections

- Challenging yet rewarding beyond measure!
- One of the few professions that can provide both contribution to society and adventure!
- Development can be an easier pathway than research (early on)
- Many future pathways
- Knowing the right people makes all the difference!

Support Networks

CONNECT ENGAGE SUPPORT

THE CRAWFORD FUND

FOR A FOOD SECURE WORLD (read more...)

ACIAR

aciar.gov.au

WhyDev

committed to getting development right

Raidaustralia.net

CONNECT ENGAGE SUPPORT

Home About Blog News Useful Links Jobs/Opportunities Events Photo Gallery Contact

Latest Items

- Blogs: Don't leave home without...
- Jobs: Food Plant Solutions - Volunteer
- Events: Crawford Fund forum: facing the global food crisis (Adelaide)

Kath Ashlev gives a run down on how she got started in Cambodia